Basic Detail Report

Title Natural bouquet

Date 1976

Primary Maker Barbara Becker

Medium wheat, wood, glue

Description Possibly handmade "bouquet" made of five dried heads of wheat and four flowers made of think pieces of wood glued together with a "stamen" in the center. Came with one flower unattached and no extra stem could be found, plus two loose petals and a dark olive green ribbon. This is the remaining portion of the bouquet Barbara Becker held at the wedding when she married Raymond Girard in 1976.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions: (Length) 14 x (Width) 4in. (35.6 x 10.2cm)