Title Woman's Shoes

Date about 1750-1760

Primary Maker Mary Ledyard

Medium Hand-stitched leather, silk brocade, and linen, with silk-covered wooden heel

Description Shoes of white silk brocade with pink and brown flowers, bound with pale blue silk tape, with a pointed and upturned toe and Louis heel. The two latches which cross the top of the foot would have been held by a buckle. The tongue is pointed. A white rand edges the vamp of the shoe, around the sole. The leather sole is continuous over the front of the heel. The silk is lined with plain-woven linen. The soles are straight.
