

Basic Detail Report

Title Woman's Shoes

Date about 1870

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Machine-stitched and hand-stitched leather and cotton, with leather-covered wooden heel

Description White kid leather shoes, with a low knock-on heel in a Louis shape, and rounded square toes. The vamp is decorated with a large rosette of matching leather, edged with white cording. The "petals" are in several layers, the topmost layer having a small mother of pearl buckle in the center. The quarters have a lining of white leather, which is hand-stitched with purple thread. It is applied over the bound edge of the throatline. The vamp is lined with white twill-woven cotton. The sock lining, which is very worn, is white leather. The soles are straight.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 3 1/8 x 2 3/8 x 9 1/8in.

(7.9 x 6 x 23.2cm)