

Basic Detail Report

Title Wholecloth Quilt

Date 1825-1840

Primary Maker Phelps family

Medium Hand-stitched, cylinder-printed plain-woven glazed cotton, or chintz;
plain-woven printed cotton

Description Wholecloth quilt consisting of a glazed brown, white and yellow cylinder-printed chintz top, batting, and a plain-woven printed cotton backing; these three layers are hand-stitched together in a quilted pattern. The cylinder-printed design consists of groups of three large yellow and white flowers

Basic Detail Report

surrounded by leaves and smaller yellow flowers. Each column of flowers is flanked by a border of small semi-circular flowers. The quilted pattern consists of a field of jagged lines. The top consists of four panels of chintz; three of the panels are about 24 1/2 inches wide. The backing consists of four panels of plain-woven cotton printed in red with columns of flowers separated by a field of small circles. Each edge of the quilt has brown and white woven tape binding, also known as Trenton tape. Condition: The back of the quilt has minor stains, faded spots and areas of slight yellowing around the edge.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width): 86 x 86in. (218.4 x 218.4cm)