Title Maid's Uniform

Date about 1962

Primary Maker Gloria Holtsinger

Medium Machine-stitched cotton, with plastic studs

Description Dress: Green and white striped cotton dress, with a button front. The short sleeves have turned-back cuffs edged in white; the camp collar is also edged in white. A small breast pocket is mounted on the proper left side. The back of the bodice is styled with a yoke across the shoulders. The bodice is pleated into the waistband; the waistband has the stripes of the dress fabric turned horizontally. The skirt closes with a hidden button placket, set off slightly to the left of the center. The buttons are studs of white plastic imitating mother-of-pearl. A patch pocket is stitched below the right hip on the front of the skirt.

Apron: The apron of white cotton ties around the waist. The apron front is pieced in three slightly flared panels.
