

Basic Detail Report

Title Girl's School Uniform Jacket

Date about 1970

Primary Maker Scarlett E. Holtsinger

Medium Machine-stitched wool and synthetic fabric, with ferrous metal buttons

Description Heathered dark gray wool blazer, with a patch pocket over the proper left breast and a patch pocket over each hip. The breast pocket is machine-embroidered in orange with "Oxford School" over a design in white, yellow, and blue of an open book picturing a laurel wreath and a harp; at the bottom of the design is an undulating ribbon reading "VINCIT QUI SE VINCIT". The blazer closes at center front with three gold-tone ferrous metal buttons emblazoned with a shield with a rampant lion design. Two smaller buttons of the same design are stitched at the outside wrist of each sleeve. The blazer is lined with blue synthetic fabric (probably acetate).

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (center front length x width across shoulders):

26 x 15 1/2in. (66 x 39.4cm)