Title Woman's Hat

Date 1900-1910

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Machine-stitched and hand-stitched feathers, velvet, silk

Description This shallow hat is pointed at the front and decorated with various kinds of feathers. The base of the hat is constructed from a black plain-woven silk. The brim is lined in brown velvet. Feathers, dyed different shades of brown and purple, along with white, completely cover the black velvet crown. The brown turned-up brim is only visible at the side and front/back tips of the hat. The underside of the crown is lined in black silk and has a small black silk braided bow on the interior center back of the crown.
