Description Commercial buildings line a city street. The frame building at the left has a striped awning and a sign that reads: "219 ANDREW J. O'CONNOR 219."

There is a shoeshine chair in front of the plateglass shop window. The building on the right has louvered shutters and a sign that reads: "CENTENNIAL AM[E]

RICAN TEA CO." Merchandise is displayed in the shop windows. Part of the Center Congregational Church is visible at the far right. Utility poles and paved sidewalks line the street. A gas street light operated by a pulley is at the left.
