

Basic Detail Report

Title Tote Bag

Date 2001

Primary Maker Connecticut Museum of Culture and History

Medium Machine-stitched cotton canvas, with nylon straps

Description Undyed cotton canvas tote bag, printed on one side with an image of a Civil War soldier wearing a caped coat, superimposed over an image of the Connecticut Historical Society's Treasury Guard flag (#1922.4.1). Above the flag is printed in blue letters: "The Connecticut Historical Society" and below the flag is printed in blue letters: "www.civilwartreasures.com". The bottom corners of the tote bag are stitched up into the side seams to create a flat bottom. Two blue 28-inch-long nylon straps are stitched to the top for carrying handles.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 14 1/4 x 19 1/4 x 5in.

(36.2 x 48.9 x 12.7cm)