

Basic Detail Report

Title Instantaneous Photograph at 264 Main Street, Hartford, with a Woman Crossing the Street

Date 1885

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; albumen print on paper on card

Description A woman wearing a hat and a dark bodice over a flounced skirt crosses the dirt and cobblestone street in front of a horse-drawn omnibus. A sign on the omnibus reads: "Main Street". Trolley tracks are in the road. Three men, two barrels, and a utility pole are on the paved sidewalk. A frame commercial building and two stone commercial buildings are in the background. Some shop windows have striped awnings. Signs read: "272 Glaziers Office 272", "Mutual Union / Telegraph", "A.A. Hunts / Coal / Office", "... Tailor -F.H.- [?] Cusick.- Importer / of / Woolens", "281 - Pool and Billiards", and "G.B.Hales [?] / Pattern Making".

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 4 5/8 x 6 1/2in. (11.7 x 16.5cm) Sheet (height x width): 6 3/4 x 9 3/4in. (17.1 x 24.8cm)