

Basic Detail Report

Title Exchange Bank, State Street, Hartford.

Date 1910-1925

Primary Maker J. C. Dexter Photo Company

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Commercial building with what appears to be a brownstone facade with Corinthian fluted columns, Corinthian fluted pilasters, balustrades on two levels, two reliefs: "1835 / Rebuilt 1869." and "Exchange Bank". Sign in an alley at left reads: "The Hartford / Electric Light Co. / Battery Dept." A ladder leans

Basic Detail Report

against the brick building, which is the Hartford Courant Building. A man stands on the steps of the bank. At right, a stone and brick building with windows has striped awnings that say "Longs". A sign toward bottom reads: "New Engl

[and]..." An advertising board says: "Hartford", and "Joe Welch / Morning, / noon and night". Painted on brick wall: "...Extra / Ales and Lager".

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 9 5/8 x 7 3/4in. (24.4 x

19.7cm) Sheet (height x width): 9 5/8 x 7 3/4in. (24.4 x 19.7cm)