

Basic Detail Report

Title Woman's Drawers

Date about 1892

Primary Maker Helen Woodward

Medium Machine-stitched cotton, with shell button

Description Woman's white cotton drawers, gathered into a waistband which is straight across the back and dipped in front. The drawers open on each side and are fastened with a shell button on the waistband. The legs are splayed and are decorated with rows of tucks on either side of an insertion of whitework eyelet embroidery; they end with a flounce of scalloped whitework.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width across the top): 26 1/2 x 13in.

(67.3 x 33cm)