

Basic Detail Report

Title Images of Old Lyme and New Haven

Date 1900-1910

Primary Maker George Grant MacCurdy

Medium Photography; negative emulsion on glass

Description Scenes in Old Lyme and New Haven, Connecticut, including numerous views of 237 Church Street, New Haven and Salisbury House on McCurdy Avenue, Old Lyme, the residences of Professor Edward Elbridge Salisbury and his wife. Other views include the Old Lyme Congregational Church, Lyme Street in Old Lyme, the Duck River, Watch Rock and buildings of Yale University. Some negatives include oxen, horse-drawn vehicles, stone walls, elm trees, a water tower, a well, and a pergola. One negative includes the photographer's shadow.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 5 x 7in. (12.7 x 17.8cm)