

Basic Detail Report

Title The Christian's Hope.

Date 1848-1850

Primary Maker Kelloggs & Comstock

Medium Lithography; printer's ink and watercolor on wove paper

Description A group of men, women, boys, and girls stand in a graveyard beside a large stone building with closed louvered shutters, probably a church. Behind them is a stone monument inscribed: "IN MEMORY / OF / [five illegible lines] / I KNOW THAT MY REDEEMER / LIVETH. JOB. 19.25." Men and boys wear coats, jackets, vests, and trousers. Women and girls wear dresses. One woman wears an apron. Two wear bonnets. One holds a handkerchief. Several people point at an inscription in the sky: "[Hebrew letters] / GOD. / The first cause of Eternity,

Basic Detail Report

source of bounteousness, / Father of immortal Souls." A weeping willow is at the far right, near a large urn. Other trees in the background probably include cedars or poplars.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 8 1/4 x 12 11/16in. (21 x 32.2cm) Sheet (height x width): 9 15/16 x 14in. (25.2 x 35.6cm)