

Basic Detail Report

Title Slip

Date about 1935-1950

Basic Detail Report

Primary Maker Crowley family

Medium Machine-stitched rayon, with machine-made lace made of (probably) synthetic fiber

Description Woman's slip of salmon-colored woven rayon. The front and back panels are cut on the bias so that they cling to the body and flare at the bottom. The sides of the top half of the slip are cut in triangular panels, with the grain line parallel to the side seam. The top and bottom edges of the slip are trimmed with ecru machine-made lace. The slip has self-fabric shoulder straps.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length excluding straps x width across top x hem diameter): 35 x 18 1/2 x 67in. (88.9 x 47 x 170.2cm)