

Basic Detail Report

Title Petticoat

Date about 1905-1915

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Machine-stitched cotton, with cotton tape

Description Woman's petticoat of white cotton, with a smooth front and drawstring waist across back. The center back is open for 10 1/4 inches. The petticoat has a sixteen-inch-deep flounce of machine-stitched embroidery in a berry pattern. The flounce is headed by eyelet that would have been laced with ribbon. The flounce is stitched over the petticoat, creating a double layer for extra fullness. Under the flounce, the petticoat has a four-inch-wide scalloped ruffle. The petticoat has a cotton tape hanging loop on the right side of the waist.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x hem diameter above the ruffle): 36 1/2 x 68 1/2in. (92.7 x 174cm)