Title Boy's Drawers

Date 1888-1890

Primary Maker Allan Kellogg Smith

Medium Machine-stitched white cotton

Description Child's drawers or diaper cover of plain white cotton. The legs are short and widely splayed. The leg openings are decorated with five narrow tucks above the one-inch hem. The drawers are gathered into the waistband, which fastens over a placket opening on each side of the legs. There are six buttonholes on the waistband, but no buttons. It would have buttoned to the bottom of the child's shirt.
