

Basic Detail Report

Title Child's Dress

Date about 1845-1860

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Hand-stitched and machine-stitched cotton

Description Small child's dress of white cotton with a woven figure. The neckline is wide and square; it is bound with self-fabric sewn on the straight grain. The short sleeves are edged with scalloping worked with buttonhole stitches. The

Basic Detail Report

bodice is closely gathered into the neckline and into the 1 1/4-inch-wide waistband. The skirt is gathered into the waistband; it has four one-inch tucks above the two-inch hem. The dress opens at the center back for about 10 1/2 inches (it has torn beyond this, though) and closes at the top with a drawstring under the neckline binding.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width across top): 23 1/4 x 12 1/2in.

(59.1 x 31.8cm)