Description A man and a woman stand beside the porch of a Gothic revival house with gingerbread vergeboards and hood molds on the windows. A drainpipe extends from the roof of a bay window at the right. Vines, including ivy, grow profusely on the walls and porches. A paved path leads between gardens in the foreground. The plantings incorporate borders and parterres. The plants in the flower beds at the right appear to be roses. Dense trees, including evergreens, are in the background.
