

Basic Detail Report

Title Infant's Sacque or Jacket

Date about 1865-1875

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Machine-stitched cotton

Description Infant's sacque or jacket of white marseilles woven in a diamond pattern. The neckline is round and is trimmed with scalloped whitework embroidery under a binding. The center front opening curves back at the bottom corners; it is trimmed with the scalloped whitework edging, continuing along the bottom edge. The coat sleeves are trimmed around the wrist openings with the whitework. The body of the sacque is flared.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width across bottom): 10 3/8 x 15 1/2in. (26.4 x 39.4cm)