

Basic Detail Report

Title Pelerine

Date about 1830-1840

Primary Maker Brace family

Medium Hand-stitched cotton

Description Woman's pelerine of sheer, white muslin, cut in a semi-circular shape. The neck edge is plain. The bottom is edged with a self-fabric ruffle, headed by an insertion of needlerun net lace. The insertion is edged by piping. The ruffle is edged with 1/4-inch-wide plain net.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width): 10 1/2 x 30in. (26.7 x 76.2cm)