Title Drug Store, Corner of Trumbull and Church Streets, Hartford

Date about 1905

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photograph; gelatin silver print on paper

Description Interior view of a drug store with stocked shelves, including boxes and bottles, and a soda fountain counter. Two young men are behind the counter, another man stands to the left. There are several signs that read:

"Learn to Drink / Moxie / It's Healthful" ; "Drink S . H. / Root Beer / 5 [cents]" ; and "Ice Cream / Soda 10 [cents]". Several cups are lined up on the counter, and light fixtures are hanging over it. The man at the far left is probably Joseph I.

Cantarow, owner of the store.
