Title Demolition of Part of the American School for the Deaf

Date 1936

Primary Maker Unknown

Medium Photography; gelatin silver prints on paper

Description Views document progressive stages in the demolition of a large brick building, apparently an institution, with an Ionic portico on one facade, and a two-story porch on another. Two cupolas, dormers, and chimneys are on the roof. Some photographs include a sign that reads: "NEW YORK HARTFORD / HOUSE / WRECKING CO." Some photographs include stone gateposts surmounted by lanterns, leafless trees, including elm trees, and automobiles. Snow is on the ground in most photographs.
