

Basic Detail Report

Title Church of the Immaculate Conception, 270 Park Street, Hartford

Date 1902

Primary Maker Joseph A. Jackson

Medium Drawings; black ink and gouache on linen

Description Designs for the interior of a gothic revival church include longitudinal sections, including one through the transept; a roof plan; a section showing framing; and cross sections looking towards the sanctuary, towards the front, and through the vestibule. Most plans show ceilings, vaults, groins, plaster, etc.

Dimensions Sheet: 24 1/2 x 26in. (62.2 x 66cm) or smaller