Title The Many Cultures of Connecticut

Date 2003

Primary Maker Stanwyck E. Cromwell

Medium Drawing; colored pencil on wove paper

Description The profiles of four people of different races, colored orange, yellow, brown, and red, are superimposed on an American flag and the outline of the state of Connecticut. A sprouting bean seed is between the two sets of faces. The state is superimposed on part of a larger American flag, colored blue, and surrounded by other beans, peas, and grains of corn.
