

A
JOURNAL OF CIVILIZATION

KIDNAP UNITED STATES
NO IN FIVE YEAR IN ADVANCE

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the Year 1911, by George A. Swenson, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the Southern District of New York.

(In the last number of Hesper's Weekly, we published the following interesting

This extraordinary circulation, and the clarity of Blanco's World, makes it unique as an advertising medium to any other journal published in the United States. It is probable that most readers of Blanco's World is read by at least one adult. It circulates among the classes which advertisers desire to reach. A very large proportion of its circulation is purchased by fathers, mothers and boys. The space offered to advertisement is very liberal; the price, it costs a line on the last page; 20 cents a line on the page preceding.

[illegible]

Also give a view of the Matamoras Hotel on Matamoras, where the meeting took place. It is a very pleasant, clean, modern-looking hotel. Inquire Jackman, who worked at Elmer's, and was a valuable assistant for the last two years.

out of a commercial leader, and a sort of electric feeling. The had been engaged by several women there growing out of the movement, and the two were, however, was present both the battle and peace. The feeling that it is something a matter among the "Socialists" is a little above, 1891, have been collected for the nation.

2.5 Given pictures are from identical by age and sex, demonstrating the difference. (Photo)

RECEIVED FROM CAROL AT AIRMAIL--NEW MESSAGE FROM AT AIRMAIL--THE OTHER IS FROM, ELECTRIC--THE SAME WITH

Page 1 of 2

Basic Detail Report

Description Page 369 includes an illustration of "The Murder of Colonel Ellsworth." Other illustrations include "Secessionist Prisoner Captured at

Alexandria" "The Marshall House at Alexandria" "Company of Secession Cavalry

Surrendering to Colonel Wilcox of the First Michigan Regiment in front of the Slave-Pens at Alexandria, Virginia" "General Bragg's Camp, as seen from Fort

Pickens" "Interior of a Sand-bag Battery at Pensacola Bearing on Fort Pickens"

"One of the Mortar Batteries just Erected on Santa Rosa Island to Support Fort Pickens" "Bivouac of Confederate Troops at Las Moras, Texas, with Stolen U.S.

Wagons, etc." "United States Volunteers Throwing up Entrenchments on

Arlington Heights" "Brilliant Charge of United States Cavalry through the Village of Fairfax Court House" "Advance of Federal Troops into Alexandria." On back cover" "The American Eagle Surprises Jeff Davis in his Attempt to Rob her Nest."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 10 3/4 x 9 1/8in. (27.3 x

23.2cm) Sheet (height x width): 15 3/4 x 11 3/8in. (40 x 28.9cm)