Title Figurative Compositions.

Date 1879-1900

Primary Maker Edwin Augustus Moore

Medium Drawing; watercolor, opaque white, and graphite on wove paper

Description One drawing consists of very rough sketches of men and women, possibly in European peasant costume. In the other, a man lies on a blanket on the ground in the desert. A second man with a mustache sits beside him. Three tents are at the left. A third man with a horse or mule is nearby. A green plant with broad leaves is at the right. A town of what appear to be adobe buildings is in the right background.
