

Basic Detail Report

Title Plate

Date 1962

Primary Maker Kettlesprings Kilns

Medium Mechanically-molded ironstone with underglaze blue decoration

Description Large, round, ironstone plate with printed underglaze blue designs commemorating the Tercentenary of Haddam, Connecticut. The plate has a central, circular design showing a Native American exchanging textiles with a European in a Pilgrim-style hat and costume. This is surrounded by a circular border with the words, "1662/ HADDAM, CONNECTICUT/ 1962/ Haddam Tercentenary, Inc." Surrounding the central circular design are six designs, each with a label describing the contents of the design. The first shows a church with a steep roof and tall steeple, titled "HADDAM NECK/ 1740/ CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH". The next design shows a two-story wooden home and is titled, "JOSEPH ARNOLD, ONE OF THE/ FIRST SETTLERS OF HADDAM, BUILT/ THE ORIGINAL PORTION OF THIS/ HOUSE IN HADDAM." After this is a design showing a bridge, a body of water, and a tall structure on the far shore. This scene is titled, "CROSSING THE CONNECTICUT/ RIVER AND VIEW OF GOODSPEED/ OPERA HOUSE." Next is a two-story stone building with a projecting portico, titled, "BRainerd ACADEMY - BUILT IN 1837/ NOW HOUSES TOWN HALL, MASONS, AND EASTERN/ STAR". After this is an image of a sailing ship with three masts titled, "THE TYPE OF SCHOONER/ BUILT IN HIGGANUM/ SHIPYARDS". Finally, the last design shows a small wood house titled, "ONLY 1/2 HOUSE LEFT IN/ CONNECTICUT - BUILT CIRCA 1690/ HOME OF MR. & MRS. PATRICK DOYLE/ HIGGANUM".

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (diameter): 10in. (25.4cm)