

Basic Detail Report

Title Hamburgh Cove, Lyme, Connecticut

Date 1860

Primary Maker Charles De Wolf Brownell

Medium Drawings; watercolor on paper, matted, in gilt and gesso wood frame

Description A frame house with two chimneys and a back ell is in a grassy valley.
