 Where smiling meadows charm'd the sight, whose fragrance bless'd the vernal hours; luscious fruits the taste invite, and compensate for faded flowers; thus when the spring of youth decays, though deck'd with blossoms sweet, and fair autumn a nobler scene displays; if fruits of virtue flourish there, Summer's day from youth to age, trifles all their cares ensnare.
 But when wintry storms and beauty fades, and pleasure dies,
 We let nobler cares employ, cares which terminate in joy.
 Ere the summer sun-beams flee, let me like the fruitful bee
 Well improve the smiling hour, gathering sweets from every flower.

of four alphabets and the numbers 1 through 13, over two inscriptions. The first inscription is "Where smiling beauties charmed the sight whose fragrance/ bless'd the vernal hours; Nectarious fruits the taste invite; and/ compensate for faded flowers; Thus when the spring of youth/ decays; Though deck'd with blossoms sweet and fair; Autumn/ a nobler scene displays; if fruits of virtue flourish there/ Summer's day from youth to age, Trifles all their cares engage;/ But when wintry storms arise, Beauty fades and pleasure dies/ Me let nobler cares employ, Cares which terminate in joy./ Ere the summer sun beams flee, Let me like the fruitful bee/ Well improve the smiling hour; Gathering sweets from every flower". The second inscription is: "Wrought by Esther R Tuttle March 17th 1812 aged 11 yrs". Certain lines of alphabets, numbers and text are separated by various narrow borders, including straight and meandering lines. The sampler has a four-sided border. The sampler has a 3/16 inch double-turned hem on the side and the bottom edges. The selvedge is on the top edge. The sampler is not framed. Letters and Numbers: There are four alphabets and the numbers 1-13. The letters are uppercase script in alphabet 1, lowercase script in alphabet 2, uppercase block in alphabet 3, and lowercase block in alphabet 4. The letter J is present in the third alphabet only; the letter U is present in all alphabets, except for the first alphabet. The first and fourth alphabets end in "Y"; the letters "j", "q" and "x" are missing from the second alphabet. The embroiderer uses long 's'. The "er" in "flower" is positioned over "ow". Stitches: The principal stitch on the sampler is cross stitch over two threads; it is also worked in cross (over one), satin, long and short, straight, and rice stitches. Condition: The sampler is
