REGISTER", over seven rows of family details, over two inscriptions at the bottom. The first inscription is a verse, "When youths soft season shall be oer/

And scenes of childhood charm no more/ My riper years with joy shall see/ This proof of youthful industry". The second inscription is "Lucy Morgan wrought this in the 11th year/ of her age Hartford January 10th 1822". Parts of the family details and inscriptions are separated by narrow horizontal meandering borders. The text is surrounded by a wide empty margin then a four-sided narrow, geometric border at the edge. The register has a 3/16-inch double-turned hem on all four edges. The register is not framed or mounted. Letters and Numbers: The words "FAMILY REGISTER" are in uppercase script. Stitches: The register is worked in cross stitch (over two and over one). Condition: The register has minimal fading. The ground is weakened at visible center horizontal and vertical folds. There are many small stains. The register is not framed or mounted.
