Medium Drawings, blueprints; pencil, red pencil, pink pencil, cyanotype on paper

Description Elevations, details, sections, and plans for a church show a curvilinear Mission-style parapet gable and octagonal belltower. The facade has three arched windows over a bank of three arched entry doors and a wide set of steps. Drawings include plans for the main floor with two rows of pews, vestry, apse, and nave; a basement with a large central space, bathrooms, buffet, coat rooms, and boiler room; and details of the choir gallery. Also included are heating, plumbing and electrical diagrams.
