

Basic Detail Report

Title Summer Spread

Date 1880-1890

Primary Maker Kinne family

Medium Hand-stitched muslin and printed plain-woven cotton, or calico

Description Summer spread with a Chimneysweep pattern center panel surrounded at the sides and bottom by an appliqué vine and leaf border. The pattern of stepped blocks is made of pieces of white and printed plain-woven cotton, or calico; the cotton is printed with brown, blue, pink and red geometric and floral pattern. The calico border consists of a pair of grape bunches at the bottom center out of which emerge an undulating vine with leaves and flowers. The calico is applied onto a muslin backing. Each side of the spread is finished on the selvedge, while the top and bottom have a narrow hem. Condition: The summer spread has scattered light brown spots and stains.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width): 93 1/2 x 88 1/2in. (237.5 x 224.8 cm)