

Basic Detail Report

Title Back to School Parade, Hartford, 1957 and 1958

Date 1957-1958

Primary Maker Clarence Suchecki

Medium Photography; color slides on plastic in cardboard mounts

Description Back-to-school parade on Main Street, Hartford, includes parade floats, huge balloons, automobiles, a horse-drawn covered wagon, and a marching band. Most cars are convertibles. Balloons include a tiger, an elephant, a dog, a horse, a dinosaur, a hippopotamus, a two-headed cat, Noah's ark, a clown, and a duck with ducklings. Spectators, including many children, line the street. Mott's Super Market, Walgren's Drug Store, Sears Roebuck and Co., and Hartford Federal Savings appear in the background of some pictures.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 15/16 x 1 7/8in. (2.4 x 4.8

cm) Mount (height x width): 2 x 2in. (5.1 x 5.1cm)