Primary Maker The Fuller Brush Company

Medium Brush (.a): Synthetic bristles, metal and rubber back, wooden handle, and metal hanging loop. Box (.b): Paper printed with blue and orange ink.

Description Wooden-handled brush in original box. The brush (.a) is made of an elongated loop of metal that has been folded in half to hold synthetic bristles; the edges are crimped to hold the bristles in place. The curve of the metal loop has a rubber bumper attached, stamped, "Fuller". The two open ends of the metal loop are inserted into a black-painted wooden handle. The handle widens as it extends further away from the bristles, then narrows into a rounded end; a metal hanging loop extends from the rounded end. The outside of one side is stamped, "FULLER BRUSH CO. PAT. 1,743,319". The inside of that same side is stamped, "MADE IN U.S.A." The brush is housed in a paper box printed in blue and orange. Both short ends of the box have a four-sided opening that folds together to close. The center of all sides of the box is light brown with blue and orange writing; to either edge is an orange border; and both ends of the box are light
