

Basic Detail Report

Title Man's Wallet with Box

Date 1934

Primary Maker Lewis Fox

Medium (.1) Black leather wallet with gold-plated metal medallion and corner tips in (.2a,b) cardboard box covered with printed paper and copper tone foil

Description (.1) Man's bi-fold wallet in black leather with 14 karat gold tips and a gold medallion applied to the center of the front monogrammed "LF" for Lewis Fox. The wallet is divided into compartments on the left to hold a rail pass and driver's license and a full length compartment accomodates dollar bills. On the right side a small compartment closes with a leather tap and is designed to hold coins. (.2a,b) The original box is made of cardboard with a removable lid.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (length x width x depth of box): 4 3/4 x 3 1/2 x 3/4in. (12.1 x 8.9 x 1.9cm)