

Basic Detail Report

Title The Collins Company Sells Axes and Machetes in Latin America

Date 1947

Primary Maker HH Art Studios Inc.

Medium Drawing; ink wash and gouache with graphite on white wove paper with woodpulp paper lining

Description Drawing of a man with a mustache dressed in a vest, jacket and hat showing axes and machetes to several men wearing hats on a beach with palm trees. There is a crate in the foreground that reads, "COLLINS & CO". There are more men unloading a rowboat in the background. In the distance is a three-masted ship with furled sails and additional rowboats heading to shore. There is a drawing of a large knife or machete marked "COLLINS & CO / HARTFORD" across the top of the drawing.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 15 x 21 7/8in. (38.1 x 55.6cm)