

Basic Detail Report

Title Demijohn

Date 1905

Primary Maker George W. Banker

Medium Glass bottle in wooden crate with metal hardware

Description The demijohn is a round green glass bottle enclosed in a rectangular crate comprised of several pieces of 1/2 inch wood. The bottle sits on a flat, round base and the neck of the bottle is visible from the hinged lid of the crate.

The lid could have been locked with a lock (now missing) to secure the contents of the bottle. The wooden crate is branded with the following: "TRADE MARK

'TWOPLEX' REGISTERED /1905 /BOXED /DEMIJOHN /MADE UNDER THE PATENTS OF GEO. W. BANKER /FRED C. WHITE /241 WATER ST. NEW YORK."

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width x depth): 20 x 12 x 12in. (50.8 x 30.5 x 30.5cm)