

Basic Detail Report

Title Exterior Views of G. Fox and Co. Building, Main Street, Hartford

Date 1866-1917

Primary Maker Leverett Belknap

Medium Photography; gelatin silver print on paper, also on paper on card

Description Views of the G. Fox & Co. building on Main Street Hartford. The two views show the store before 1917. 2007.24.267 shows Main Street looking South from Talcott Street. Several buildings and churches, including Christ Church, are on both sides of the street. Horse-drawn vehicles are parked on the dirt street next to the sidewalk. Utility poles and wires are visible. The 3-story brick building visible at the bottom right was one of the early locations of G. Fox & Co. 2007.24.268 shows the west side of Main Street with several multi-story brick and stone commercial buildings with window displays. The Brown-Thomson building, designed by H. H. Richardson, is visible at the center of the photograph. Several horse-drawn carriages and delivery wagons are on the street. Men and women walk on the sidewalks. A trolley runs on tracks in the street. Utility poles and wires are visible. Some of the buildings' windows have awnings. Signs on the building read, from left to right, "[WOOL]WORTH & CO. 5

Basic Detail Report

and 10[cent] STORE", partially visible, "[N]EAL, GOFF & INGLIS CO. / CARPETS /

FURNITURE / MEN'S AND MISSES' SUITS / WALLPAPER. / PAINTING AND

DECORATING / STRETCHED / CANVAS CEILINGS / A SPECIALTY.", also, "THE

NEAL, GOFF, & INGLIS CO.", "WE GIVE S & H GREEN TRADING STAMPS", "972 G.

FOX & CO. 970".

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (height x width): 10 1/8 x 8 1/4in. (25.7 x 21cm)