Description This photograph album is from the collection of albums from the Estate of Amy Tatro. The photograph album consists of photographs of the Heinze and Tatro family and friends. Most photographs are of unidentified people. Many of those photographs are formal studio portraits of men, women, and children. Some photographs show men in uniform including a soldier, a police officer, a hockey player, and trolley conductors. Some are wedding photographs while other formal studio photographshow men and women holding books or walking canes. The women wear dresses with beading, pins on the collars, and hats with flowers. Photographs of children show small girls and infants. The first two photographs are of Chauncy Olcott, a famous tenor singer.
