

Basic Detail Report

Title Kellogg Family Photograph Album

Date mid 19th-late 19th century

Primary Maker S. A. Dexter

Medium Photography; albumen prints on paper on cardboard carte-de-visite mounts in cardboard pages bound in album with leather-covered boards and metal clasps.

Description Formal studio portraits of men, women, and children, including members of the Kellogg family of Hartford. Identifiable individuals include Maria Kellogg Hinkley and her husband Jonathan L. Hinkley, and possibly Sarah Kellogg Talcott and Agnes Kellogg Sage. Also includes a portrait of a young woman identified on the verso as "Fitzgerald" and a photographic reproduction of Sir Edwin Landseer's painting, "Dignity and Impudence," representing two dogs.