

Basic Detail Report

The Webb Mansion Wethersfield.

Title The Webb Mansion, Wethersfield

Date 1882

Primary Maker Edwin Whitefield

Medium Lithography; colored printer's inks on wove paper

Description A grassy lawn and a picket fence surround a gambrel-roofed Colonial house with two chimneys. There is a small pedimented porch at the front entrance and a cellar hatchway on the left side of the house. A wing extends back at the left, connecting with a low outbuilding, possibly a barn or stable. Young trees and numerous bushes grow in the yard.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 2 15/16 x 4 3/4in. (7.5 x 12.1cm) Sheet (height x width): 5 x 8 1/8in. (12.7 x 20.6cm)