Description A two-story frame house has a small grassy lawn. There is a railing surrounding the flat roof of a side wing, suggesting that the roof was used as a terrace. A paved sidewalk and a paved driveway lead directly to a paved road. A two-car garage and another small building, possibly a shed or barn, are in the background. Weeds grow in a lot at the right. Large trees are at the right and left. An ornamental shrub grows in the lawn and a small evergreen is beside the porch.
