

Basic Detail Report

Title Beardsley Park showing Botanical Gardens, Bridgeport, Conn.

Date before 1938

Primary Maker Tichnor Quality Views

Medium Photomechanical prints; colored printer's inks on postcard

Description Flowers, presumably roses, grow on metal arches along a path leading to a green house at the left. Other flowers grow in flower beds along the path and additional small gardens are in the grassy lawn in the background.

Trees and what appears to be an arched bridge are in the distance.
