

Basic Detail Report

Title Map showing free public libraries

Date 1896

Primary Maker Geo. H. Walker & Co.

Medium Lithography; black and red printer's ink on wove paper

Description Map of Connecticut, divided into towns and counties, showing the towns in which free public libraries exist that were organized under Chapter CLXXVIII of the Public Acts of 1893, indicated by solid red shading; and the towns in which free public libraries exist that were otherwise created, indicated by red and white striped shading. Villages and cities in the towns are denoted with circles and names. The New York, New Haven and Hartford; New England; Vermont; Reading; and the Northeast Division Railroads are labeled. Other railroad lines are delineated, but their names are not provided. The bordering states' names and that of the Long Island Sound do not appear on the map.

Basic Detail Report

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 10 3/4 x 14 7/8in. (27.3 x 37.8cm) Sheet (height x width): 12 x 16 1/4in. (30.5 x 41.3cm)