

Basic Detail Report

Title Lord's Indexed Map of Greater Hartford, Connecticut

Date 1961

Primary Maker Harry D. Lord & Son

Medium Lithography; colored printer's ink on wove paper

Description Street map, on an alphanumeric grid, of greater Hartford, Connecticut, extending from Windsor Locks to the North, to Manchester to the east, to Berlin and Rocky Hill to the south, to Farmington and Simsbury to the west. Bodies of water are denoted in blue; town boundaries in red; and parks, cemeteries and other public spaces in pink. The map legend, at the center bottom, provides information about how railroads, town boundaries and street numbers are depicted. Seven insets provide more detailed maps of parts of Simsbury, Windsor Locks, Berlin, Avon, Farmington, Manchester and Glastonbury.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 53 1/4 x 41 1/2in. (135.3 x 105.4cm) Sheet (height x width): 59 1/4 x 42 1/2in. (150.5 x 108cm)