Date 1865-1875

Primary Maker Isaac F. Langley

Medium Photography; albumen prints on paper on cardboard mounts, some with added watercolor

Description Photographs include a series of views of The Elms, the stone mansion of Legrand Lockwood. These views include the Hall and Court, the Vestibule, the Billiard Room, the Music Room, the Drawing Room, and two views of the Gate Lodge, one with a pony cart. Other views show other houses, one with a greenhouse, city streets, the harbor, the green, churches, a railway depot with horse-drawn vehicles, and a waterfall. One photograph apparently depicts a gathering of Norwalk citizens on Martha's Vineyard; a sign reads "VINEYARD TO NORWALK / Greeting." Three other photographs depict scenes in nearby Westchester County, New York. One shows a church in New Rochelle; two others show a house and an apparent fisherman in Mount Vernon. All three
