Primary Maker Giles Bishop

Medium Photography; albumen prints on paper on cardboard mounts

Description Portraits of men, women, boys, and girls. Subjects include Annie Munson and Harry and Lucy Bishop, the children of the photographer Giles Bishop. Harry and Lucy pose with a toy wagon. Lucy's portrait is inscribed "Lucy Bishop 5 yrs old dressed to go to New York." One portrait is of Jimmie Durante. Another shows a bearded man smoking a large pipe. Most portraits are posed studio portraits, but one photograph shows a group of four women and a man seated at a table playing cards. A large birdcage is in the background. Framed prints and photographs hang on the wall which has patterned wallpaper on it. One photograph shows a small boy outdoors on a grassy lawn behind a brick house swinging what appears to be a golf club at what appear to be croquet balls. Part of the John S. Craig Collection.
