

Basic Detail Report

Title Miscellaneous Landscape Views

Date 1860-1900

Primary Maker Elisha Ayer

Medium Photography; albumen prints on paper on cardboard mounts

Description Subjects include New Preston Falls, a view of Gregory's Mill in Norwalk, a view of Lantern Hill, a view of Danbury from the southwest, and a view of the Connecticut River, probably between Hartford and Middletown.

Other, unidentified landscapes include farms, bridges, a river with ice on it and a factory in the background, a stone arched bridge, and a group of men and women on a road near a large hotel. Part of the John S. Craig Collection.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 4 1/2 x 7in. (11.4 x 17.8 cm) or smaller Sheet (height x width): 4 1/2 x 7in. (11.4 x 17.8cm) or smaller

Mount (height x width): 4 1/2 x 7in. (11.4 x 17.8cm) or smaller