

Basic Detail Report

Title East Windsor, Hartford County, Connecticut

Date 1966

Primary Maker East Windsor Historical Society

Medium Lithography; black and blue printer's inks on plastic-coated paper

Description Placemat map of East Windsor, Connecticut, from the town line of Enfield to the north, Tolland County to the east, South Windsor to the south, and the Connecticut River to the west. It is divided into 12 numbered districts, marked with broken solid boundary lines. Local roads are shown but not labeled, and are lined with small black squares representing buildings, which are labeled with the owner's name. On the right are three images, the first of East Windsor Academy, the second of Osborn's Mill, and the third of Warehouse Point Ferry.

Dimensions Primary Dimensions (image height x width): 10 5/8 x 16 7/8in. (27 x 42.9cm) Sheet (height x width): 11 1/2 x 17 1/2in. (29.2 x 44.5cm)